

IN OUR PARISH

Advent Mass of Concern

Next weekend, December 5th & 6th, we show our concern for our less fortunate neighbours through donations to our annual “Advent Mass of Concern” In your Sunday envelopes, you will find one specific for this Mass. If you do not have Sunday envelopes, a basket containing specially marked envelopes, “Advent Mass of Concern” will be available at the entrances to the church. Both cash and cheques are accepted. Cheques should be made out to Ascension of Our Lord Parish. Your generosity in supporting our Advent project will help feed and shelter the homeless and poor this Christmas.

“Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and the Lord will repay him for his good deed.” (Proverbs 19:17)

Election of Wardens

On Sunday December 6th immediately following the 10:30 Mass a meeting of all parishioners will be held in the Parish Room for the purpose of electing two wardens to replace the two who are completing their term of office on December 31, 2015.

A warden serves on the Board, which comprises six elected wardens & the pastor, and manages the financial & temporal affairs of the parish. Anyone of good will, 16 years of age and older, who resides within the boundaries of the parish may submit his or her name for election. Each nomination must have a seconder. If you would like to submit your name to serve our parish in this way please speak with Fr. MacEachen. Nominations will be received up until the meeting for the election.

Christmas Flowers to Decorate the Church

All are invited to make a donation in the name of loved ones toward the purchase of flowers to decorate our church for the Christmas season. Donations should be received at the latest by December 17th in order to allow us to plan the decor of the church during this holy season.

Resources for Advent Reflection and Prayer

1. The “Praying Advent” website offers many helpful resources for individuals and families who want some help to begin the season of Advent and move through it well.

Just Google “Praying Advent” or go directly to:

A season of paradox

Advent is a time of looking forward but it is also a time of contradictions and paradox. It’s a season of hope and excitement for those who look forward to Christmas as a festival to be enjoyed with people they love. It’s a season of hope and excitement for Christians looking forward to celebrating the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. It’s a time of sorrow and darkness for many who face Christmas for the first time, or the twentieth time, without a loved one at their side. It’s a time of sober reflection and preparation for Christians who also look forward to the time when Christ returns in glory “to judge the living and the dead” and to establish his kingdom which will know no end.

Jesus talks this week about distress among the nations and fearful “natural” events that will shake heaven and earth. These are the signs by which we will know that the Kingdom of God is near and, for Luke, this is a time not of judgment but of redemption, another cause for hope and excitement.

As Jesus speaks of the uncertain, changeable and temporary things of our world he also speaks of the certainties that we can believe in and prepare for. The words of Jesus “will not pass away” and through prayer we will be given the strength to withstand all that threatens our bodies knowing that our souls are redeemed and belong with the glorified Son of Man.

Lord Jesus, as we look forward to celebrating your birth among us give us the wisdom and faith also to prepare for your return so that when that day comes we will be ready to stand before you in your risen glory. Amen
