Christmas Flowers

All are invited to make a donation in the name of loved ones toward the purchase of flowers to decorate our church for the Christmas season. Although donations will be accepted at any time, if you wish to have the names included in the Christmas bulletin, your donation would need to be made by December 18 at the latest.

Weekly Donation Envelope Boxes

Starting this weekend you can pick up your new Sunday Donation box for 2017 at the main entrance of the church. Please be sure to pick up only the box that has your name and number on it. Boxes are in alphabetical order. If you don't have a donation envelope box—but would like to make your weekly donations to the parish using this method, there are some unassigned ones available. Please remember that when starting a new year, do not use envelopes from previous years. For more information or if you have any questions you can contact the parish office.

Gaudete Sunday, in our waiting for Christmas, the exclamation of joy! Joy comes not from created objects that prickle a moment of happiness, but a deep in dwelling acknowledging our spiritual treasure. An emotion where searching ends and steadfast peaceful exuberance prevails. Joy can be as contagious as the proverbial winter cold, if we don't trap the joy internally, but let it manifest in our outward demeanor. For joy is not capable like a soda fizzing from a bottle, freely flowing, bubbling over.

What do we let joy empower in our lives? How does joy transcend to passion? Does your joy see beyond the immediacy of now to hope in faith? The prophets are our role models. They faced challenges and hardships, but the basis of their witness encompassed joy to prepare a way for the Lord. Do we have the patience to deal with joy as they did, to let the Spirit direct the joy to where it will bear fruit? Or do we try to save ourselves instead of letting Divine joy save us from distractions that sap joy from our lives? Without justice, joy evaporates, for the kingdom of God fails to matriculate faith with the human family. People are oppressed, captive to exploitation, strangers unwelcomed, people blinded from seeing the true cost of their economic endeavors, the least in society existing not living, so humanity's intercessions obstruct God's justice and dwarf the potential for joy to exist beyond superficial platitudes. Only a phony joy, removed from spiritual origins exists when God's justice strains to be upheld. We must probe our conscience to ask ourselves what type of good news we proclaim to the poor. Do we, as society, empower them for participation in an equitable society or do we trap them in servitude with false hyperboles? This is one of the many questions we must ask and then with courage exhort the path of justice to reign forth joy in our lives and share the opportunity for the infusion of joy in others' lives. peaceonjustice.wordpress.com
