

IN OUR PARISH

Christmas 2015

Our Christmas liturgies at Ascension were well attended, prayerful and festive!

I wish to thank all of you who participated in the celebrations and worshipped with us, for your monetary contribution to the Parish and to our charity fund. A special thank you to the parish staff; our Music Director, David Szanto, the Ascension Choir and Cantors for the beautiful music they provided to enrich our liturgies; the Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers, Altar servers, Hospitality ministers, sacristans; to David Barrington and Frank Overall for decorating the Church; to Linda Wiltshire and helpers for preparing our children for the Pageant. To those who made a donation for our Christmas flowers and decorations, we are very grateful.

I wish all of you a wonderful New Year with countless blessings and graces.

Father MacEachen

Benedict Labré House

On Sunday January 24th, Ascension will be providing and serving food for approximately 150 people less fortunate than us. We do this by pre-making a meal and dessert. Along with this we serve soup, bread and juice. Next weekend, January 16th & 17th, we will be supplying pans and recipes for the meal and dessert. If you are unable to prepare something, we gladly accept cash donations to buy the other items. For additional information, please contact Aletha Thompson at 514-482-5660.

Ascension Choir Concert Exultate!

The members of our Parish Choir would like to invite all parishioners to join us for an afternoon of sacred choral music and organ works, under the direction of our Music Director and organist Dr. David Szanto. The concert will take place on Sunday, February 7th, at 3:00pm in the church.

We would greatly appreciate your support of our wonderful music program by placing an ad in the program to be distributed at the Concert or, as a benefactor by making a donation to the event. For more info. contact Mary Rivard-David at 514 932-0927 or by email at claudemary@sympatico.ca

2016 Weekly Donation Envelopes

Effective January 1st, 2016, we have implemented a new (and less costly) way of delivering your weekly envelopes to you. If you have not already done so, a box containing all of the envelopes for the coming year is available for pick up at the back of the church. Please note that some of you have been assigned a new envelop number.

With Jesus before the Father

Luke's account of the baptism of Jesus admits us to the secret depths of Jesus' relationship with his Father. There, not only is he "reminded" of his identity as Beloved Son, but the Father's "estimation" of his Son comes to his ears as well: "with you I am well pleased."

This tender account of the relationship between Jesus and his Father reminds us of a most human desire: the desire that a child may be "pleasing" in the eyes of his or her parents. No matter the age, nothing builds up a child more than to hear from a parent, "I am so proud of you; I am so pleased with you." These words bring such joy, such affirmation.

The astonishing message of this feast is that the identity and "estimation" which Jesus possesses before his Father, is the same identity and "estimation" which we can claim, thanks to our Baptism. What Jesus possesses by nature, we possess by adoption, the incredible gift of God's mercy toward us. We are beloved daughters and sons; the Father is "well pleased" with us. But how difficult it is for us to accept this identity and this estimation! What endless evasions we construct and conditions we place on that simple truth!

Perhaps a fitting meditation for us on this feast would be to sit quietly with the phrase, "with you I am well pleased" and to let it wash over us. We might pay attention to what comes up in our hearts as we do and then to relate all of that to God. And then, perhaps in that quiet encounter, overcoming our objections and healing whatever obstacles may appear, the Lord might move us to embrace that truth which the "kindness and generous love" of God have won for us.
